

Cape May County Park & Zoo's
SCAVENGER HUNT
GRADES 6 - 12

Search the Zoo for answers to the following questions. Pay special attention to any signs you see along the way. Good luck!

1. What does SSP stand for and what is the symbol for it?
2. List 5 SSP animals here at the Cape May County Zoo.
3. There are a little over 200 facilities in North America that belong to the AZA. These facilities uphold the best possible animal care. What does AZA stand for?
4. What are the 3 pigmentary abnormalities you can find in our Zoo animals? Which animals have these abnormalities?

Birds

5. What 2 birds freely roam the Zoo Grounds?

6. What year was a Snowy Owl overwintering here in Cape May County?
7. List 5 different types of birds you see in the World of Birds.
8. Name a type of animal found in the World of Birds that is NOT a bird.
9. Which bird fishes by sweeping its submerged bill from side to side in the water?
10. As of 2007, how many Bald Eagles are there in New Jersey?
11. In what area of the world are Sulphur Crested Cockatoos found?
12. What is a male Mute Swan called? What is a female called?
13. The fastest two-legged animal is the Ostrich, whose top speed is _____km/hr or _____mph.
14. What Act protects many birds, including our Red-Tailed Hawk?

Mammals

15. What is the name of Cape May County Zoo's Bongo that was part of the Bongo Repatriation Project?

16. What is the name of our Bongo "Mara's" first calf? What does this mean in Swahili?
17. How many pounds of milk will an average Holstein Cow produce in a year? How many gallons does that equal?
18. What continent do the DeBrazza's Monkeys naturally call home?
19. How far away can a Howler Monkey's call be heard?
20. Silver Foxes will bury food in shallow holes. What are those holes commonly called?
21. Name one characteristic that makes the North American River Otter well-suited for aquatic life.
22. What kind of animal is a Cavy?
23. What are two other names for a Bobcat?
24. You may have heard our Lion roar while you were exploring the Zoo today. Can our Tiger Rocky also roar?
25. What is a Muntjac? What is another name for a Muntjac?
26. To what animal family do Bennett's Wallabies belong?

27. Do Black Bears truly hibernate?
28. Growing as heavy as _____ lbs, the Capybara is the world's largest living _____.
29. How low was the American Bison population by 1884? How many are roaming the North American plains today?
30. Do male, female, or both male and female Bison have horns?
31. A Bactrian Camel has 2 humps, but our Camel only has one hump. What kind of Camel is she?
32. Cotton-Top Tamarins are protected by the Endangered Species Act. What year did they become protected?
33. What is threatening the existence of Golden Lion Tamarins?
34. Living in the bitter cold altitudes of up to 19,700 feet, what does a Snow Leopard do with its tail to keep warm?
35. The scientific genus and species name for a Red Panda is Ailurus Folgens. This is Latin for what?
36. Reticulated Giraffes feed on leaves with their long tongues. On average, how long are their tongues?

37. How long is a Giraffe's gestation?
38. How many recognized species of Antelope are there?
39. What organ helps the Oryx to go weeks or months without drinking water?
40. What sub-species of Zebra do we have here at the Cape May County Zoo?
41. What kind of animal is "Marley," our veterinary miracle?
42. The Ocelot is a small endangered cat. What are 3 of its favorite foods?

Reptiles/Amphibians

43. Name 5 common snakes of New Jersey.
44. What is the lifespan of a Rhinoceros Iguana?
45. What kind of Asian Snake has been introduced and is now thriving in the Florida Everglades?
46. There is a critically endangered Salamander that can only be found living and breeding here in Cape May County. What is this Salamander called?

47. How many of these critically endangered Salamanders are thought to be living in the wild?
48. How many species of Alligators are there in the world? Which species do we have here at the Cape May Zoo?
49. How many Chinese Alligators still exist in the wild?

Insects

50. What percent of the insect population are Honey Bees?

How did you score?

Thank you for visiting the Cape May County Zoo!

*Check with your teacher or adult for the correct answers.
We hope you enjoyed your visit and please come again!*

